

VCC welcomes new international students to join the Fall 2014 term

New international students participated in orientation on either August 28 or 29, depending on their programs. Students received information about people and resources available to them at VCC and in Vancouver. Topics included: cultural adjustment, important immigration documents, VCC services and support, staying safe and healthy, and Campus Tours were led by returning VCC international student volunteers.

↑ Students checking in for orientation ↓

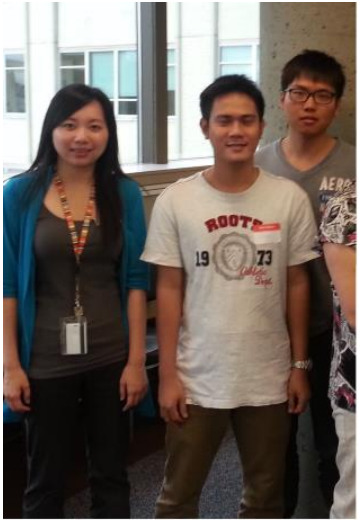

Students mingling and making friends during break ↓

New Student Orientation for international students starting in the September 2014 term

At this fun and informative event, students had the opportunity to also make new friends and connect with other international students.

Orientation on August 28, 2014

New Student Orientation
August 28, 2014

New International Students,
International Student Volunteers,
and International Education Staff

Students in the following programs participated in the Orientation on August 28:

- Automotive Service Technology
- Hospitality Management
- Occupational & Physical Therapy Assistant
- Drafting
- Digital Graphic Design
- Fashion Arts
- Dance
- TESOL
- University Transfer

Orientation on August 29, 2014

New Student Orientation
August 29, 2014

New International Students, International Student Volunteers,
and International Education Staff

Students in the following programs participated in the Orientation on August 29:

- Asian Culinary
- Culinary Arts
- Baking & Pastry Arts
- Health Care Assistant
- Hair Design
- Skin & Body Therapy