Beatrice Antica

STUDENT SUCCESS TEAM AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

VCC is Beatrice's second family and the place she strives to become the best version of herself to grow wings and develop her career goals. She has finished multiple programs over several years earning a Diploma, a Degree, and several Certificates. Currently, she is taking the PIDP Program. She cannot be more excited than to dream and aspire to become one of the best VCC professional success stories. She would like to say thank you to all of her instructors, peers, VCC staff members and donors for the passion, pride and dedication, confidence and support they have surrounded her with along the way.

Maha Alsedawe

LINC DEPARTMENT SCHOLARSHIP

Maha is from Douma in Syria. She came to Canada in 2016 with her family and started learning English from Level 1 at VCC. She has been trying her efforts in improving her English whenever she has a chance because it is hard for her to learn English due to her disability. After four years, she has made great progress in her English and is now at Level 6. In the future, she hopes to be an interpreter and an artist. She would like to thank her instructors and her assistants. Without their help, she couldn't have achieved such great success. She would also like to thank her mom, two sisters and her two brothers who gave her lots of support throughout her life.

OUTSTANDING ALUMNI AWARDS 2020

COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTION

Demitri Kulik

UTILITY MAINTENANCE WORKER, VANCOUVER BOARD OF PARKS AND RECREATION

Demitri is an alumnus of the Building Service Worker program, a program designed to support those facing multiple barriers to employment. During his coursework, Demitri demonstrated heightened empathy for those needing additional help with language or technical skills. He continues to help VCC students secure work experience placements with the Vancouver Parks Board, and returns to speak with students at guest career sessions while encouraging others to pursue learning opportunities at VCC. During COVID and necessary closures, Demitri offered to be redeployed to work in single-room occupancy housing in the Downtown Eastside, exhibiting leadership and respect.

Julia Pavlova

GENERAL DUTY NURSE, ST. PAUL'S HOSPITAL

Julia is an extraordinary person who has been at the forefront of the pandemic as a new graduate nurse. Leading beyond expectations, she has been a media face for “Red Zone” front-line workers, those who work directly with COVID patients. Julia has been nothing but positive in the face of exhausting, never-ending work, sharing stories of the efforts of her peers on Global, CTV news, and Providence in-house articles.

CHANGEMAKER

Esther Winder

EMERGENCY PLANNING TECHNICIAN, SECWPEPMC HEALTH CAUCUS

Esther is a self-proclaimed “wild card”. She goes above and beyond in every aspect of her life to ensure that no individual or community is left behind. Her out-of-the box thinking and unique approach to helping Nations and communities within her influence have established a Secwepemc Collaborative Emergency Management Agreement that has stood up to legal reviews and approval by the Secwepemc Kukulpi7 (Chiefs). Esther has helped bring federal and provincial governments together to address unique social determinants of health issues and concerns.

HONOURARY ALUMNI AWARD

Brandt Louie

VCC FOUNDATION DONOR

Brandt Louie was an integral building block to a Foundation that now distributes over $1M per year in scholarships, bursaries and training materials to recognize and support VCC students. Mr. Louie was a passionate volunteer – chairing committees and serving on the Foundation Board – including the enabling of a charitable golf tournament that ran for 25 years and supporting VCC's Notable Event music series which seeded over 60 annual scholarships for up-and-coming musicians. VCC is proud to recognize Mr. Louie as a committed volunteer, donor, and supporter. We wish to recognize and honour his legacy in helping thousands of VCC students over three decades.
